DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 67-69 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification does not contain "a derivative thereof" with regards to vitamin B complex, vitamin C and folic acid. Specification also lacks any disclosure of "pantothenic acid or a derivative thereof" and "sodium pantothenate".

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 62, and 67-68 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 62 and 67-68 are indefinite due to containing the term "a derivative thereof". It is unclear what is meant by "a derivative thereof". For example, in claim 62, what is a derivative of a "monobactam" or "viral agent". The scope of claims can not be determined, when a broad term such as "a derivative thereof" is used.

Claims 57-61, 63-66 and 70-71 are allowed.

Terminal Disclaimer

The terminal disclaimer filed on 02/04/03 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of the said patent has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.
